THE BOOK OF THE DEAD

ok, so:-

for some reason, we are receiving a number of luxury leisure vacations, cruises, and other methods to consume massively more than our already over-the-top of fossil fuels and CO² production and the disgusting Viking Cruises commercials on PBS (which doesn't have commercials, yeah right) and the voice of an offensive faux aristocratic announcer.

posing as a good ancestor, me/him thinks it is important to revisit these vacation hotspots (and future Traditionalist castles where future elites will be killed by their guards) as they will look in 2100 AD (7321 in the Mayan calendar). so here it is.
